I went to Cebu Island with my friends from school four years ago. Cebu is a big island in the Philippines. It has a beautiful sea and rich nature. The people were so friendly and the food was really good. We stayed there for two weeks and had a good time.

From the second day, we took three English lessons in the morning and four in the afternoon every day. We could talk only in English in the class. It was very hard for us at first.

One day, we visited a junior high school in Cebu City. We joined one class and introduced Japanese dance to the Philippine students in English. We showed them some pictures and danced “Bon-Odori”. They liked the dance and tried it with us. They really enjoyed it. After that, they invited us to their traditional lunch. We talked a lot in English over lunch.

I learned that English is important to communicate with people from different countries. And we have to try to use English to master it. Now, I want to go back to Cebu Island and study it again.
